

PASS THE GLOW

OUR PROMISE

Part of our promise to our clients, employees, and community is to give back with our actions and our finances. For each new client, we are committing to give back a portion of our income to one of our favorite Charlotte-based organizations. We want our clients to help us choose how we give back so...

...where would you like our donation to go?

Heal Charlotte

Their mission is to serve the community and build trust and a legitimate bond between the community, its laborers, and its officials by creating an open dialogue between citizens, police, and elected officials.

Center for Community Transitions

By providing family support, reentry support, and community advocacy, the Center for Community Transitions helps people with criminal records and their families find healthier and more productive ways of living.

The King's Kitchen

Their vision and goal is to raise funds to feed the spiritual and physical needs of those who have the least in the community and to train and equip those previously unemployable in the restaurant trade.

Community Matters Cafe

Community Matters Cafe is a full service restaurant and coffee shop that provides a four-month life skills training program that teaches Charlotte Rescue Mission recovery program graduates a variety of essential life and job skills that prepare them for successful transition back into the workplace.

Time Out Youth

Time Out Youth is a center that offers support, advocacy, and opportunities for personal development and social interaction to lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and questioning (LGBTQ+) youth.

ourBRIDGE

ourBRIDGE for Kids provides after school and summer programs to primarily refugee and newly arrived immigrant students to attend to the academic and socio-emotional needs of the children and their families.

Playing for Others

Playing for Others is a need blind organization that provides a space for teens to explore the questions "Who am I?" and "How will I give of that?" through programming in personal development, service, and the arts.

Common Wealth Charlotte

The mission of Common Wealth Charlotte is to empower the working poor in Charlotte to achieve financial independence through financial education and capability services.

We encourage you to pass the glow by helping out organizations in your community that combat an issue you're passionate about. Whether you give with your time, talent, or treasure, nonprofit organizations need their community members' support to be successful.
